

I support RM-10783. No amateur radio operator should be excluded from operating below 30 MKz. No Technician class operator should be denied access to HF bands or be restricted to ten meter voice because of not passing a code test. Higher classes deserve broader frequency spectrum as as an incentive for advanced study, but no one should be excluded from frequency coverages that include bands and modes of operation, i.e. ten meter FM, ect. Terrence Glass, N0YXE